

A WAF OF ETERNITY

( e- minor )

1. You feel a soft waft of eternity,
It can't be chained into the space and time,
If confidence may penetrate the room,
If mutual harmony is swinging on your waves,

e G D
if you will leave your house of loneliness.

e G D
that love, that's aiming at the endlessness.

G D
If sense and heart will rule instead of brain.

e G D
for just one moment you might blissfulness obtain.

2. May life be tiring and just hard for you,
May clouds obscure your sunshine, and Remember constantly, that troubles form, It's the resistance that, what spurs us on,

and will it lead through valleys, dark and deep.
might work and acting all be desperate and to weep.
and that, what contradicts will let us rise.
and in the back view things appear in other wise.

Interlude:

G D
If storms are raging and winds will strongly blow,
G D
If all the wheels turn around the other way,
G D A
Don't get bent and not broken, nor despair,
G D
And live like those, who are daring things with plu

a and might the whole world rise against you both, e
a and mischief's gliding over your head, close, e
e live like you are, like God created you. D
a e
a struggling against the mainstream for their truth.

3. We wish to you, both, on your further way,
That no one ever might pelt with stones and rocks,
Uprightness, truth might give to you the escort,
Be willing to indulge, to reconcile,

that from now on you together want to go,
that your respect, your wisdom, love might grow.
so draw your trust out of your confidence!
and try to tolerate in discordance.

Look out: divinity in your's might ever glow.
