

CHILDRENS WELFARE

(C-major)

Prelude: C G F C F D7 C G

1. Sometimes I think how many children in this selfish, crazy world yearn for love and for affection, and are not loved by anyone;
 and there is nothing, what`s connecting parents with their boys and girls.
 And they feel negative reactions, no matter, what they had done.

2. In homes and educational institutions they are forced to insert and obey.
 They feel rejected by their begetter, never wanted and pushed back.
 There`s no room for a solution, and the future more than grey.
 and what they long for doesn`t matter. No noble goal, that they could track.

Refrain: Children are not mere creatures, that you can freely push around.
 They too are the crown of our nature, they need support and a solid ground.
 Yes, they need our comprehension warmth and love, security.
 With confidence, loving attention we will influence their destiny.

3. There are many married couples, who would like to have a child.
 But often their dreams burst like a bubble or they have to wait for a long, long while for an adoption, connected with a lot of troubles, while the biological parents neglect their kids.
 Such children are really punished doubly: by rejection and a foreign seat.

4. How many little souls are hurt by beatings, neglect, sermons of wrath?
 How many little minds are converted by hate paroles glorifying the death?
 How many children work many hours without protection for a pittance, enslaved by those, who live in towers, tolerating no counterword, resistance.

Refrain: Children are not mere creations
