

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

(C – major)

^C 1. When ^{C4} a ^C star ^G the ^C night ^G enlightened
^d Jesus, ^a born in poverty and coldness,
^B Not in wealth and not in luxury,
^F He remained till ^G cross and ^C lancet

Refrain: ^G In plainness, ^C modesty living, ^{Aes} He taught hope, trust and ^{Ees} forgiving,

2. And the star of the unknown Bethlehem, became for those celebrating Christmas
And still now, when wars are wasting,
the wish for freedom is frustrating,

Refrain: In plainness, modesty living.....

3. Sometimes you see weapons resting,
you see fighters Christmas blessing and you feel the hope arising,
Thus may mankind realize it:

Interpart:

4. And this man, born in a stable,
In his weakness he was able
He touched the heart of millions of people
Up to the sky points our steeple.

Refrain: In plainness, modesty living....

^F before ^C over ^a 2000 ^C years,
^F came to us to dry the tears.
^C just on straw and timber he was born.
^d without pride, ^G hate and ^C scorn.

^G his whole life without a sin.
^G and that mercy, love will win.

which determined the change of time,
and for the world a special sign.
when men kill men, destroy and chase,
a beam of hope penetrates these days.

and an enemy can join his hand,
and the wish to understand,
which the Christmas message sends.
we all are created by GOD`s hands.

we use to call GOD`s son,
to change lives. Look, what he`d done:
and had united heaven and earth.
GOD`s sign for love is Jesus` birth.
