

GOD`S POETRY

(G – major)

Prelude: G – G – G - G

1. ^G Look at the ups and ^D downs of living
 ^G see at the turn of taking - ^D giving
 ^a ^G ^D
 Marvelous sunrises and sunsets,
 ^a ^G ^F
 Breathing and the sounds of trumpets,

2. Plants are growing and are ending,
 Atoms, stars are not still standing,
 Nothing`s rigid, not even mountains,
 In the long run all things must change and

Refrain: ^B If you want ^F marvels to ^g explore, ^g ^F
 if you`re able your world to reveal.
 ^B ^F ^g
 Devote to urge of true researches
 ^C ^A ^{D4 D}
 Out of that might you can feel.

3. Look at all those various faces,
 See the host of stars, so spacious,
 What`s the count of all the galaxies
 And from each point you may tax these

4. You can find it in your own life:
 Once you`ll look through the complete drive,
 We` re only captured by restrictions,
 At the end of all afflictions

Refrain: Any small thing or the great one,
 each oscillation, energy,
 Light beams, waves and every course,
 and testifies God`s poetry.

^e ^D ^G
follow the stars, their orbits trace!
 ^e ^D ^G
nature steers in the whole space!
 ^e ^D
low tide, high tide, dark and bright,
 ^C ^A ^{D4 D}
all is swinging by God`s might.

what bursts magma out of earth?
all in motion, death and birth.
if you regard the innermost.
perceptive faculty shams the most.

^F ^{E-es}
then you will see more and more,

^F ^{E-es}
and bow to that love, which emerges

no one`s like the other one.
to tell them could be never done.
filling the universal hall.
points, you can never see them all.

you can see just one part of the whole.
the source, to that comes back each soul.
just a sham world, senses pretend.
you will awake and understand.

all, what ends and has begun,
all draws power out of one source

End: A – D4-D - A - D4-D