

LIFE CAN BE EXCITING

( D-major )

1. Take a look of all the nice things that we are paying to live for,
See the flowers on the wayside the first sunbeams, that are rising
- in this great, fantastic world, besides power , money pearls.
in their beauty, color`s play, and proclaim a new rich day..
2. Golden fields are undulating listen, how the birds are singing and enjoy the starry nights, walk in forests, green and stragglng,
- softly in the summer wind, gliding on their tender wings, wrapped in by the silence of the dark, through a fragrant, chilling park.
- Refr.: Well, life can be so exciting, May clouds occur, storms rising,
Not rejecting all the bad things, You`ll perceive the worth of beauty
- if you just see the best.
any tempest shows regress.
not escaping knowingly, live in contentment, harmony.
3. A nice word, a friendly glance a child getting a present And a handshake, that sets signs But last and not least that love
- and a gesture of good will, and the wish, that is fulfilled.
for friendship and for sympathy. connecting us with fervency.
4. Thanks for all your lucky time for the smile ending your disputes for the act, that you had rescued and for people lending help,
- embellishing your life, for the aims, that we can strive,
out of deep necessity,
for compassion, charity.
5. We take a lot of things for granted, Pass over or forget the fact,
But if you recognize the moments you will flourish like the rose,
- don`t regard the giving source, things can change for us, of course. as a gift and as a chance, and to heaven you`ll advance.
