

THAT ONCE WE CAN COME BACK

(e-minor)

Prelude : e G D e G D

1. Lord, if some day for the last time we are praised and by Goodman Death from yonder we are embraced,
well, as sinners we are all the same.
Everyone is to reproof and to blame,
all the same the aims, which we had marked, we had traced.
2. You know the weak points and mistakes, that we do,
You know the evil might seducing, attracting us too.
Often we are yielding to malignity,
the voice of clear conscience loosing dignity.
Doubts we are ignoring, forgetting rules, which we knew.

Interlude: e G D A

e G D
d C G
F G D

3. Spirits of research and science, knowledge are the might,
but they sometimes bring the darkness into the light.
If for us some day the death turns to nightmare,
we might stand dejected, surely helpless there,
and we`ll get fears like children for thunderstorm in the night.
4. Lead us, Lord, back to the source of consciousness, the inner most.
Let us act according to the Holy Ghost.
Give us respect to the great essence.
Open our eyes for your secret plans,
that once we can come back to the Lord of hosts.

Afterlude : e G D e G D e G D (fading)
