

THE ASTRONAUT

(a - minor)

^a 1. Many miles through the deep darkness
^a gliding through an endless stillness
^C Somehow oppressed by a yawning vacuum,
^F as a moon in spaces ocean,

^a I traversed the universe,
^a far away from home and earth.
^C feeling lost in black and beams,
^D between reality and dreams.

Refrain: ^C I hoped to find my true creator,
^F if this God, ^G the men ^D adored,
^a who`s sometimes ^C mocked or who is ^D praised,
^F can be found ^G here and ^a explored.

^C to come to know him soon or later, ^G

2. And I took a look around me,
And I stared into that abyss,
Fascinating twinkling, brightness
Sliding through the depth with lightness, daring a deep view into time and space.

unattainable wideness, grace.
of dispersing light of beams,
but God is hidden, a product of dreams.

Refrain: And I hoped to find

3. But far away from native places
You never can find Your God in spaces,
He`s concealed with all his acting
That, what seems to be connecting,

I got illumination there.
behind stars courses anywhere.
in the mankind`s heart and mind.
is the charity, you`ll find.

Refr. I am sure, that I can meet him,
God is never far away.

here on earth I can feel him,

^a ^C ^D
[: Everywhere, when divine light

^a ^C ^G
penetrates the darkness`s might,

^F ^G ^D
You can face God any day. :] 2x
