

THE CRISIS

(e-minor)

Prelude: e G D A

1. All the years the head regarded
D A
to raise for people more and more.
Growing profits they expected,
D A
just success they had fought for.

G
increase of economics, awarded,

critiques, warnings they neglected,

2. Unproductiveness encumbers,
caring just for their own troop,
well, they run their sham transactions
if they blessed with pelt their group.

and those one of their own numbers
getting highlights, satisfactions,

C
All at once some banks were smashing,
A E
or did they only joke?

hopes of million people dashed,

And the top guy`s heads are shaking,
A H
sympathy with those, who`re stroked.

unbelievable their taking

Interlude: e G D A e7 G D H

3. "We`re not guilty!" they are pleading,
No one ever could predict.
In their detailed analysis:
to human failure they contradict.

while the whole world now is bleeding.
"guilty for the fall: the crises!"

4. And the most of them forget it,
these constructions came from men.
Those, who`re cunning, intellectual,
caused this crash, but who knows, when?

and we all have to regret it,
in their lifted spheres, high spiritual,

5. But behind each evil terror
waits the chance for a new start.
If the mankind grants reward
ends corruption, self-regard.

rising from false faith and error
for those, who can win and part,
