1. Why always complaining, if something goes wrong?
Well, don` t all the difficulties in the long run make us strong?
To find a solution, an expedient, an aim,
to unravel confusion, can bring you fame.
2. Why do we grieve, if chagrin sets in?
Why don` t we agree, when intervention can` t win?
But to strive for improvement, to alter, to rearrange is better than receding, if there` s a chance to change.
3. If things get critical, many people back out.
If talks get political, they will be lost in the crowd.
They like to build on others, coincidence, fate or GOD,
try to avoid, whatever bothers, stay in their work day` s trot.

4. The being as a challenge, as a gift to regard
can lead to the balance, to a valiant heart
between low and high waves, whatever life will produce,
to overcome the dry ways, to succeed, not to refuse.
5. Not to doubt, when you act, the courage not to lose,
problems not to reject and things, which don` t amuse,
to withstand resignation despite of oppression and pain,
to stand sorrows, vexation, means to live not in vain.
6. Yes, life means fighting against the difficulties,
to strive for enlightening the inner most and to see,
where are your fortes, for which aim you can strive,
to widen your thoughts, that` s the art of life.
