

BE A MARVEL

( C-major)

1. Like a marvel you had been born for us by uniting of our souls in the same essence.
If you like as a marvel perhaps chosen, thus on the confusing ways right into our Fathers hands.
As a drop of water in the mankind`s ocean,
but as a part of stream deciding course and time.
Flow gently into dreary hearts, fill emptiness.
Be a marvel for the people, be the prime.
2. Tare a lot of people, who can never find the balance,
who are never warmed by sunbeams in their heart.
You can overcome the walls of hate and silence,
Set a sign against the despair and the disregard.
Try to help the poor wretch and the stumbling fellow.
Do not hastily judge, disparage the other men.
And be merciful, search judgment fair and mellow.
Be a marvel for the world now and then.
3. Be a lighthouse for those otherwise are stranding.
Be a ray of hope at the firmament
for those in gutters of destitution landing.
Be yourself a sign for blessing, for to mend.
Even though the men are lying, hating, chasing
You can conquer, even if they might contest.
For your love can move the mountains, with God facing.
Be a marvel in a world of emptiness.

Text and music: Chotu 5 / 2008 (dedicated to Kaya Schulz)