

ENJOY THE MOMENT

( according to the tune of “ The power of love “ )

1. The whispering of a mild breeze refreshing soul and mind the smiling of a little child, a solution you could find,
2. the sunbeams in the springtime spreading energy
The crystal pure water of a mountain brook, an old oak tree:

be touched by all the wonders, which life presents,
by all the beauty, which heaven sends.

3. Hours of joy and splendor, when people lend support, caress so warm and tender, a returned smile as a reward.

Enjoy the moment with open eyes.
Live without atonement, see creation`s size.

And don`t believe your destiny you can`t change, don`t trust those lies.
Show consciousness, curiosity. Every minute can surprise.

Forgiving, understanding, gratitude will enrich your life.
Perception, mental growth, kindness as an attitude, therefore we should strive.

Enjoy the moment with open eyes.
Live without atonement, see creation`s size.

And don`t believe your destiny you can`t change, don`t trust those lies.
Show consciousness, curiosity. Every minute can surprise.
