

HOW MANY PEOPLE

(C - major)

Prelude: C - G - d - a - F - C - G - C - C

1. How many people we learned to know who gave us hope and lend support?
How many times they had cross our road, saved us from problems fate had brought?
How often we took it for granted and forgot to thank those one donating help, which was not demanded, for all the good things they had done?
2. But what can hinder to be rejoiced at a seeming self-evident act and deed?
Bounds will be opened by a friendly voice; in the faces you can read thoughts of others, how they think and feel, real appreciation and gratitude.
Solitude perhaps can be heeled spreading out a cheerful mood.

Interlude: C - G - a - F - C - G - F - G
F - a - F - C - F - a - F - G4 G

3. Tolerance, not contradicting all the time to have one`s way, and not always fight, afflicting those, who don`t give their o.k.,
and if your neighbour falls or tumbles, don`t look maliciously from high above, but to support him, if he stumbles, then you inflame a light of divine love.
