

I AM ALONE

( C- major )

Prelude: C - C4 - C - F4 F - C - G

1. I`m so lonesome longing for my end.
I`m lost in void, feeling superfluous, tired, ill.
Why she had to die, all, what happened, I can`t comprehend,
and nothing`s there, which my grey workday now could fill.

2. My life seems senseless, cloudy without her presence.
I am lost, despaired, don`t want to live now any more.
I don`t understand the fate, thwarted all our great plans,
There`s no goal for me, that is worth fighting for.

3. I`m not sure, if I can find the power to keep going and to know, she wouldn`t come back,
to pull myself together every hour.
My sky is overcast and every night is deep black.

Refrain: I am alone, lost in isolation.
I can`t resign myself to my fate.
I know, that nothing can change my situation.
For a new begin for me it`s just too late.
For a new begin it`s just too late.

4. I never thought, it could ever be so harden to be left and hurt by a sudden lost.
Providence seems to know no mercy and no pardon,
it can demand a high and cruel cost.

Refrain: I am alone, lost in isolation.
I can`t resign myself to my fate.
I know, that nothing can change my situation
For a new begin for me it`s just too late.
For a new begin for me it`s just too late
