

LEARNING

(C- major)

Prelude: C - F - a - G - F - C - G4 - C
C - F - E - a - C - G - F - C

C F C
1. The men and the nature shall grow, slowly mature.
a e G
All things are moved by divine energy.
F E G F
All things in motion, the stone and the ocean,
a e C G
time just deceives steadiness, rigidity.

C G F C
Refrain: Keep your sense-organs open for all news on this globe and F C a G
use your intellect to search the background.
G C F C
Embrace every new thing by seeing and doing,
F C a G
which gives the chance to you to be astound.

Interpart: C - F - a - G - F - C - G4 - G
C - F - E - a - C - G - F - C

2. So, my friend, don't stop to learn and develop.
Your mind shall be widened to get the insight,
marvels revealing. Inquire to ceiling,
come nearer and nearer to the source of the light.
3. GOD's dispensation, his plans, revelation meant for us to get to higher spheres.
Life he has framed in ups and downs named fate, incidence, chance or just to be blamed

Refrain: Keep your sense-organs
