

MOTHER

( C-major )

Prelude: C G - F F2 - a - C - G - C

1. How many times I saw you walk, through all the rooms, no time to talk, to do your job for the things we need.
I never have heard you complain, neither about fatigue nor about pain, always ready your hungry mouths to feed.
2. You had to take some heavy blows, but you never lost your hope, you never let it get you down. although unpleasant themes we had to discuss.
You have always been fair to us,
Seldom we could see you frown.
- Refrain: How often we forgot your troubles, your concern for us you never denied.
For our wishes you had to struggle, but we never saw you sigh.
3. You healed so many hurts and wounds, for our actions you gave your boon, you rebuild us, when we failed. all your love, the burden to bear,
We hardly appreciated the care,
the many help, we could avail.
- Refrain: I think, so many wars, oppressions, even violence would disappear, and we would spare some painful lessons by watching all the mother`s tears, by watching all the mother`s tears.
