

REMEMBER, YOU`LL NEVER BE ALONE

(D-major)

Prelude: D G D G A D

1. When the Yes-word of two lovers is spoken honestly and they want to stay together, sincere and faithfully, Assuming the others personality
Not to form him according to one`s own wants and it comes from their heart, and not from mind, and there`s a common ground they can find.

without to determine, to control.
or to press him into a preconceived role,

2. when none of them tries to assert only his own claims when both of them help to reach the common aims, and each of both shows kindness, tolerance then it`s love, not just a simple romance, without going into the other`s needs, when they never have to regret their deeds, and gives the other his free space, for a lasting relationship it will be a good base.

Refrain: B F Ees B
And even if once heavy winds will blow, and the mountains in front of you will grow, When difficulties arise and cause concern, and the world for you seem to burn, there`s one at your side, the bible calls the cornerstone.
Remember, you`ll never be alone.

3. Don`t let yourself be oppressed and patronized, act just as you feel with the wish to compromise, Show responsiveness and warmth and try to heal Pay attention to what the other will feel, shape your life according to your own will,

you know, the mind alone can`t every wish fulfill.
all the wounds and injures, you may inflict.
don`t be angry if the other contradicts.

Interpart: D - A - G - D - e - D - A4 - A - D - A - G - D - G - D - a C - D - G - C - F - D - H - e - D - C - G - E - A4 A

4. And if one of you once has to hoist his flag from that place, from which definitely no one comes back, then don`t be sad, remember, what was promised to you, All the fruits of love among us, that at some point grew, and has to go, where we all will end our way, and leaves the other one behind, who must stay, true love knows neither death nor a limited zone.

will remain and we`ll never be alone!

Refrain: And if heavy winds.....
Remember, you`ll never be alone, alone, alone
