Refrain:     I thank You for this perception,     that Your kingdom here begins, for indulgence and instruction,     even if we live in sins.
We're absorbed in dull banalities, often we reject the chance,
Only think of facts, possibilities,     but forget the real essence.

2. Thanks for moments, filled with rapture, Holy moments I could capture Now I know, those, who are searching and accept all things emerging	when I felt, that You were near. I saw backgrounds, distinct, clear. revelation, ask for more out of Yours, they'll find the door.
