

TO BUILD UP HERE YOUR HEAVEN

( D - major )

1. Every one throws his own switches,
When will mankind recognize and
We are not ripe for comprehension,
May the insight for us mature,

2. Father, help us realizing always influences surroundings,
Most of misery and suffering
Love and charity for others

Refr. : If you`re harming other people, Walking on illegal highways
Any thought and any action, at the end will be converted

3. Nothing`s left on earth here hidden,
Friend, think always of tomorrow,
Do you send warmth to the ether,
You determine now and later,
4. Life means constantly to move on
You will feel God`s might and blessing,
All you see he had created we and nature are connected,

Refr. : If you`re harming other ....

5. Help to show, Lord, responsibility
Let`s not always curse the neighbor,
Give us purity, sincerity,
for to build up here Your heaven,

yet seems blind for distress, need.
act in love with word and deed.
work defiant just for own bliss.
emptiness rules, where love is missed.

our acting, our mind
what`s disjointing, what could bind.
we produce by ourselves.
we ignore and use to shelve.

you will hurt yourself at first.
once will all the bubbles burst.
all the same whose mind might cause,
to the direction of the source.

daylight reveals, what`s ever done.
it reclaims in the long run.
it will grateful take it in.
you produce defeat or win.

in the ups and downs all days.
if for unity you will trace.
all the beings, the air, this land,
that`s the mystery, he planned.

for the others and for us.
what he thinks and what he does.
and for all men open ears,
to get into higher spheres.
