

YES, I LIVE

(D – major)

Prelude: D – D7/8 – D7 -

1. This moment I enjoy, it never will come back.
I live now and today and not tomorrow.
I'm flying through my time, determine white or black,
I myself declare happiness or sorrow.
2. Though days may run away, each minute I perceive,
Which seems to be important for me.
Just the presence offers time, when you can all receive,
which conscious life can grant, and you get free..

Interpart:

Life means to enjoy all human senses
and to strive for the fulfilling, thankfulness
for all the love, you get, and for romances,
for enlightenment, for surmounting, for success,
delivering yourself from grief and sorrow,
not captive in yesterday and tomorrow.

Instrumental part:

3. The pasture only helps to learn from my mistakes.
I don't remind, where does it lead, my way.
Do difficulties occur, can I bear, whatever aches?
How long here on earth I will stay?
4. Though wheels turn faster round, I just live now and here
In this holy moment, it's a gift.
The mystery I found, the instant, conscious, clear,
is a peace of bliss on earth, oh yes I live.