

SADNESS

Prelude: G - C D - G4 G - G

1. Has death taken away your dearest, when you`re abandoned or left alone, when strokes of fate occur in series, when you`ve been injured to the bone, when you are offended in your distress, when you suddenly lose what you possess, when you are harmed by injustice, when, despite all efforts, you can`t achieve success.

2. Everyone experiences it in his life, the sadness, the feeling of being at the end, an emotion, that drives away all your gladness, that lets all your dreams slip out of your hand.
Sadness can become your own lonesome prison, that might be forever closed, if you`re not willing to accept the lesson, that negatives are the opportunities for growth.

3. It`s one of our deepest, heavy emotions-it is associated with a sense of loss, it can disappear in experience`s ocean, if self-pity doesn`t become a cross.
Who overcomes pain, tears, humiliation, Who recognizes defeats as a test, the depths in your life are just those stations with the chance to grow, to challenge your best.
with the chance to grow, to challenge your best.
