

GRATITUDE

Prelude: C - a - C - a - F - G - C - G

Who ^adespairs of god and ^Cmankind always ^dlooking for mistakes and ^{G4 G}errors, and ^Fdemonizes this and ^{G C}that, ^ddisregards what he can ^Gget, is ^aunwilling to ^Cunderstand, to ^atake advantage of ^{G C}advice who ^Dputs his curse on ^{G4 G}everything he ^{F G C}will never get ^Ctranquility, when ^ahis alarm bells will ^{d G4 G}never ring.

and ^Fto heed signs people ^ekeep sending,
and ^{a D G4 G}opportunities which ^Garise, that ^{F C G}as a renewal a change ^Gcould bring, ^einner peace and ^{d G4 G}equanimity,

All ^Fthose good things ^{G C4 C}here on earth wether ^Fedifying, ^{G4 G}pleasant or bad.
So ^Bthink about, ^{C F}be grateful, ^Fglad that ^{Aes Ees}made your life ^{Ees}worth living, ^{Aes B c}Gratitude is the ^ckey to ^csatisfaction have ^{F G C4 C}a meaning and ^{C4 C}a worth, about ^{d G C4 C}all the moments ^{C4 C}you have had, about ^{Aes B Ees}the wonderful ^{B Ees}times your ^{Ees}life is giving. and ^{D G}takes influence ^Gon any reaction.
