Prelude: d - d - F - C - F - g - d - e - A4 A

1. ^d A harsh fate can lead to despair,
^g some decisions may be unfair,
^C you can curse ^B GOD and the ^C world.
^a Life is also marked by provocations,
^{E2} And sometimes it takes a lot of ^A patience.

2. To be admired are those, who stand upright, who are conscious of their might.
They are sure to win the fight
looking forward, never bending, and their patience is never ending.

Interlude: d - F - a E - a - F - C - B - A4 A d - a - G - C - F - B - FC - A4 A

3. How inexplicable such confidence, in spite of all worries and hindrance,
in trust, defeats also make sense.
They believe in GOD's assistance.
In critical times they show resistance.

Afterlude: d - F - g - F - C B - C - a - d - E2 - A4 A - d
