

THE WAITER

( A – major )

Refrain:

I'm a waiter, that's is my work,
Friendly, but also reserved,
All the things he wants I won't deny,
try to keep him satisfied.

For the customer always alert.
constantly polite and willing to serve.
read his wishes in his eyes,

1. Neither watch nor time I would mind.
me running. There's no holyday
More than eight hours, all the same,
Just when working place is left clean,

Every moment you will find or weekend at home I have to stay.
overtime I wouldn't complain.
I can finish, leave the scene.

2. I'm adorned with patience, dexterity, helping the customers to decide,
what sort of sweet will bring delight.
I teach behavior, manners too,
And if I get tips from someone,

know the winegrower's properties,
what's unsuitable, what is right,
how to dine out, how to chew.
I know, I have my job well done.

Refr.: I'm a waiter ...

3. I take care of neatness and new fashion,
Always striving for the best.
Small talk I use perfectly,
I notice customer's peculiarities correct clothing is all my passion,

There's no instant for me to rest.
my advice people accept obviously.
and human foibles in all degrees.

Refr.: I'm a waiter.....
