

HYMN TO HUMANITY

^D 1. Since more than thousand years that have passed by, ^{D4} ruled by selfishness and violence
^D people hardly came to know,
^G that all misdeeds don't point to intelligence.
^D But more and more people seem to doubt,
^G that luxury leads to bliss.
^D They devilish the God "Consumption".
^G Modesty is what we miss.

2. There'll be a lot of dissenting people who will strive for higher values who advocate, that money by itself
 The nature must not be destroyed, who're not impressed by mammon and might,

 and are willing to fight for what is right, doesn't serve the community.
 each of us should share in the prosperity.

^E 3. When responsibility and trust will reign, ^E when the swamp of corruption will be drained,
^E when we banish complacency and greed ,
^E We'll fight together against suffering and need,

^A fairness and caring determine togetherness,
^A when humanity counts more than success,
^A then we solve most of the problems, that arise.
^A to the pressing questions we'll find replies.

4. So let's say good bye to the imagination,
 Let us not miss the chance for every nation to a living in contentment, freedom, dignity, to alleviate hunger, pain and misery,

that happiness only follows wealth and might.
 to ensure a lasting peace opening the gates wide to preserve the planet in order to survive, to grant a humane, righteous life.
