

IN THE SILENCE OF THE NIGHT

(D – major)

Prelude: D - A - G - A - D

^D 1. She sits and stares at the lonesome road,
^A when he comes drunken through the door.
^D He overlooks her, when he stumbles in.
^D and in the silence of the night

2. He wouldn't stay another day,
No problems belong to share,
There was no more chance to reconcile,
But in the silence of the night

Interlude: h - AG - eh - G - D - G - A - D - D

3. This spry old man in a dirty shirt, walks undeterred from town to town,
Once he had lost his job, his pride,
And in the silence of the night

4. They'd not been asked, they left with tears
The General said, it is the right
They'll leave behind destruction, anger, fear.
And in the silence of the night

Interlude: h - A - G - D - G - A - D

5. The earth bleeds without end
The fools have won almost everywhere,
Who had ignored the warning signs,
And in the silence of the night

^G his drinking problem is a heavy load.
^D His blows are getting brutal more and more.
^A Alcohol and boozing rules his life,
fades the crying of his wife,
^G fades the crying of his wife.

another woman had crossed his way.
but what they feel, he doesn't care.
a tense situation just for a short while.
II: remains the crying of a child. :||

marked by rejection and hurt, when people see him, they turn and frown.
that's how his social decent slowly began.
II: remains the crying of a man. :|| with a bad feeling they went to war.

and freedom they are fighting for.
In this game they can't change their roles.
II: fade the screams of murdered souls. :||

with dying forests and desolate lands.
a damage that may be impossible to repair.
the importance of nature and its worth.
II: dies the crying of the earth. :||
