

EXEMPTION

Prelude: a - D - a - D - a - D - E - E

1. I need variety, I need action,
I'm always looking for new connections,
There are never quiet minutes,
For me there are no limits.

I'm not glued to any chair,
what people think, I do not care.
where I sit somewhere still.
I don't need to rest and chill.

2. I don't have a clean slate to show,
Wherever accusations and rumors flow,
I give all nonsense my blessing I'm self-confident possessing stand for gossips, twaddle too.

I'm always part of that crew.
and take nothing seriously,
assertiveness and intrepidity.

Refr.: I love freedom, independence,
I like luxury and affluence.
I just count on fun and leisure,
Having party is my pleasure,

I determine my own role.
Wealth means blessing for heart and soul.
throw every appointment slip in the trash.
don't need much sleep to refresh.

3. I hate chaining myself to someone
Others might just spoil my fun,
One night stands are, what I prefer.
Importunity sets off alert,

who confines my liberty.
I'm not keen on their peculiarity.
I avoid forming very close bonds.
when you're bound, you can only despond.

Refr.: I enjoy my independence,
Staying alone shows foresight, prudence,
I don't like sympathy, interest,
Fellow feeling could be at best don't need anyone by my side, secrets, feelings you don't need to hide.

don't want illusions just made by lies.
self-deception in my eyes.

4. But sometimes I ponder and doubt critical thoughts may be allowed.
to gain more than superficial pleasure.
Where can I find the greatest treasure,

my actions, my way of life,
Deep inside I feel the drive
I miss depth in my existence.
in acceptance or in resistance?

What is the reason we exist,
The are so many things I have missed.

and what's the background of it all?
Tell me what's the ultimate goal?
