

I HAD UNLEARNED TO CRY AND SMILE

(D-major)

1. I'm a businessman and shareholder, to assert myself I've learned.
I always try to take control, where ever the price is concerned.
But now I think, as I get older, I wasn't happy even though a lot I learned.

2. No matter the major crises nothing could bring me down.
I was good at foresight and analysis, and solutions I've always found.
I take advantage in every new wave, that rises,
I've never been on the ground.

Refrain: But after all the years of blessings, without pausing and without resting,
I withdrew from people more and more.
I forgot joy and pleasure, and have not yet found the real treasure,
I have unlearned to cry and to smile like before.

Interlude: D - G D - fis G - e A - h G - e A4 - A

3. All I know bustle and impatience, fixing datelines, disquiet and haste.
Where is room for contemplation? I don't want to be driven and chased?
I need love, warmth and recreation, a loyal sincere soul, a smiling face.

Refrain: But after all the years (Schluss. D D)
