

I WAS DEEPLY HURT

F F
1. I stood in the door astonished, I didn't know severe or joke.
B
I never thought you would attack me, all my hope and trust you broke.
F
You slammed the house-door disappearing, left me quite confused and disturbed.
B
And like drunken I went upstairs and reflected, what had occurred.
C
I couldn't understand what happened, there had been no date and no flirt.
B
You got no reason for insurrection, to offend, to humble or hurt.

2. So many years we lived together, and I thought, that trust could grow.
Everlasting love nobody really can promise, it's a wonderful gift as you know.
Everyone has to accept it, nevertheless it's really hard to lose someone although you love your dear knowing you have lost your cards.
If you ever would come back, for it I would give my last shirt, for I need you, I'm missing you, although I was deeply hurt.

3. A good relationship needs forgiveness, characterized by warmth and trust, it helps to overcome any difficulty, no matter how long it will last.
Problems can certainly be mastered, if nobody loses or has to bend.
If we don't try to show understanding, disagreement will probably never lead to an end.
Despite the profound injury with every single word,
I want you to come back again, although I was deeply hurt.
