

YOU`RE WALKING BACKWARDS

1. You are going backwards, you people who are at the height of might, who only care about your own well-being and decide what is best for your own country and for yourselves,
You only have plans for your own growth on your shelves.
For your own ends you accept violence, destruction, hatred and fears.
You play fate for many people. How often have you caused suffering and tears?
You don`t accept criticism, warnings and rules and portray your opponents as terrorists or fools.

2. How many progresses in mankind`s evolution you can find.
He has the ability to reflect and he`s capable to combine.
From Stone Age hunter to global player, from caveman to inventor, from the family clan to a social being, from aggressor to defender.
But you are regressing in human development.
Your hostilities and desire for division will never end.
You live isolated and alienated from the world in your shielded towers.
Your whole thoughts revolve around profit, and you revel in your power.

3. You are going down the ladder of human life.
You rule with fear and violence, using a sharp knife.
You are not interested in the suffering and misery of other people. You don`t care if they live in poverty.
The state of our nature has no meaning for you at all.
You don`t want constructive discussions, you just hide behind your wall.
You are blind and unwilling to pay attention to warning signs.
You live in the past. You go backwards all the time.
