

YOU ARE AFRAID

Prelude: B - B - B - B

1. You think the endgame begins, that the disease ultimately wins.
You are helpless and quite desperate.
You shiver and freeze. This fatal disease reminds you of all the wasted time you often invested.

2. Every day you hear new what you should avoid and what you should do.
Your previous behavior has been analyzed.
Recommendation, good advice, encouraging words, so friendly and nice,
they all often seem like idle chatter or lies.

Bridge:

But we shouldn't forget what Jesus had said
for those who will believe it,
that death means not: the end! We'll fall in GOD's hands.
GOD's comfort, we can receive it.

3. When you are on the ground and no hope can be found,
there's no courage, no self-confidence,
then remember you've known you will never be alone.
For GOD's help there'll be no hindrance.

4. When we're looking for aid we don't need to wait,
GOD knows our fears, desperation.
All his power he can use, he can wonder produce.
There's no need for a request for reconciliation.

Whatever comes, all the same what we've done
with GOD we are protected.
He will send us his light, our path he will guide, to the best all things will be directed. Ges - ees - B

Interpart: B - B7 - B - F - F
