

YOU ARE MY FAVORITE

Prelude: F - C - F - G - d - a - FG - C

1. You're not like the Goddess Athena endowed with beauty and grace, but I look behind your curtain, I see another face.
I can see the loveliness in the very heart,
I am proud and grateful that I'm an important part of you, but sometimes I can't believe it.
You are my treasure and you always will be my favorite.
You are my treasure and you always will be my favorite.

2. The outward appearance may seem as though perfection brings luck and bliss, but regarding only the surface you always something miss:
the essential things that life produces – I fear -would not be seen Compassion, fidelity and loving spirit – those values we esteem.
I don't just look at the external form, the shape which once will fade and split,
I: I prefer to look inside. That's why you are my favorite. :||

Interlude: C - C - G - a - F - C - F - G - E - a - F - C - d - a - FG - C

3. Well, we know beauty is fleeting, but the inner light we got will always shine. We can conclude a lot from what a person thinks and says, what he's doing and proclaims.
His innermost thoughts can emerge when he expresses his ideas, wishes and aims.
That's why I adore you, and won't regret a little bit.
And nothing will change in the future. You will remain my favorite.
